It is hard to get asylum in Germany.

Truth

Ghana is considered a safe country, so it is very hard to receive asylum in Germany.

Lie

It is easy to get asylum in Germany.

How does Germany decide who is given asylum?

It is based on your country of origin. Germany has a law that helps decide who gets asylum and who cannot get it. The law has a list of "safe countries." These are countries in which Germany thinks it is safe to live: the government functions and people are free from torture.

Ghana is a safe country.

Because of this, it is very rare for people from Ghana to get asylum.
