

Truth or Lie ?

Life in Germany is easy.
Everyone has a job and a home.

Truth

Life in Germany is not always easy. And it is often extra hard for migrants, because the culture and language are hard to adopt.

Lie

Life in Germany is great. There is no poverty and everything is easy.

Does Germany have any poor people?

Of course it does. Germany is a well-off country. But just like in all countries, there are rich people and there are poor people.

Germany's poor also struggle to pay all of their bills and to have enough money for food, shelter, and clothing.

Germany also has unemployment, and there are homeless people who live on the streets.

Life can be easy in Germany, but it is not easy for everyone.
