

Truth or Lie ?

There are good jobs and educational opportunities in Ghana.

Truth

There are many opportunities to succeed in Ghana, through training or entrepreneurship or work. It is also easier to have success at home, because you already speak the language and understand the culture.

Lie

A common lie is that it is very difficult to survive in Ghana and that there are no good jobs. This is not true.

What route can you take to be successful in Ghana?

There are many routes to success. Formal education, skills training, entrepreneurship, and working in some of the industries below are good options.

Some industries you could work in include:

Information & Communication Technology (ICT)
